For your final exam you will only need a pen or pencil, eraser or white out and the paper I provide for you. Feel free to mark up the exam as both it and all your writing must be handed when you finish. You will have a minimum of 1 hour and a maximum of  $2\frac{1}{2}$  hours to complete this final exam which will be worth 20% of your final grade. Take your time and if you finish before one hour quietly read to yourself. Remember there are to be no electronic devices of any kind and if you are caught using them during the exam yours will be taken away and you will receive a mark of 0. This, of course, ties in with the possibility of cheating which won't be tolerated in any form either. Good luck, don't freak out, and be mindful of the time.
