Feminism in Canada post WW2

Using the tech at your disposal and working with two more people, research and answer the following questions. Share your info with your partners (work collaboratively) and be prepared to discuss what you learned in class and possibly on our 2\textsuperscript{nd} test. Remember, its not enough to just drop names of events and people, you must be able to explain why they important to our history.

Examine the development of feminism in Canada from the 1960’s to the 90’s. Who have the important women been and what have their contributions been? How did their accomplishments improve the lives of women in Canada? What obstacles have there been and have these obstacles been overcome? What struggles are still around and how does the current feminist movement propose to overcome them?
