

Worst Jobs

Long segment

- 1) How did the Industrial Revolution make Britain rich?
- 2) What were the basic building blocks of the Industrial Revolution? Name 2 of the 3
- 3) Why were canals needed during the Industrial Revolution?
- 4) What did a legger do and why would it have been a terrible job? How long did it take to get a barge through?
- 5) What was the “posh” china used for high tea called? Who made this china?
- 6) Name some invisible dangers that you weren’t warned about during this period? What is Potter’s Rot?
- 7) Who did the Industrial Revolution introduce the concept of the menial labour? (answer comes just after making handles for china cups)
- 8) How was the Industrial Revolution responsible for the shift system? What was the job of the knocker up?
- 9) Describe the conditions a soap boiler had to work in.

Short segment

- 1) Why was there a job in scavenging?
- 2) Describe the jobs of a Bone Grubber, a Dustman, and a Tosher.
- 3) What was a Mudlark and what was this job like?
- 4) Who worked in a work house? Describe what went on here.